

Writing a story

Please take notes on the following questions before writing your story.

Who? (characters)	Where? (setting, places)
When?	Why?
What? (actions, problem(s) ...)
Ending

Please remember that you can make your story more interesting by using adjectives, adverbs, time phrases and linking words. The following table will help you.

adverbs

slowly; quickly; happily; heavily;
hungrily; carefully; awfully;
dangerously; cleverly; safely; crazily;
loudly; quietly; politely; nervously;
secretly; kindly; strongly; beautifully;
gladly; sadly ...

!!! Attention

These words don't change!!!

fast
hard

This one is irregular:

well

adjectives

big; small; little; cool; dangerous;
beautiful; slow; quick; happy; sad; safe;
clever; crazy; cool; loud; quiet; polite;
nervous; excited; strong; kind;
beautiful; boring; good; bad; great;
fantastic; fast; hard; interesting;
exciting ...

time phrases

early in the morning, after that,
a bit later, in the afternoon; in the evening; at night; the next morning;
then; suddenly; a few minutes later;
one day; while; during; before ...

linking words

because; so; although;
but; and; that ...